IT'S DAIA'S UNDER-WORLD

What does fame mean to an underground rockstar?

On the brightly lit neon blue stage, the blue-haired rock star addresses the crowd. Screams erupt within the stuffy makeshift "concert hall" located somewhere near downtown. Daia, commanding the herd, addresses them with fiery spirit.

After an arduous 3-year training period and a massive rebrand, Daia has called the underground scene her home. We sat down with the elusive rock star after one of her concerts to talk about beauty, artistry, fame, and her personal ideals.

Personal Pancake and Waffle Recipe

Serves 1

Dry Ingredients:

- 5 tbsp all purpose flour
- 2 tbsp white sugar
- $\frac{1}{2}$ tbsp baking powder

Wet Ingredients:

- 3.5 tbsp full cream milk (use 3 tbsp for waffles)
- 1 large egg
- 2 drops vanilla flavoring

In a medium bowl, add dry ingredients and whisk lightly. Add wet ingredients and fold to mix. Do not overmix.

On a lightly greased nonstick pan, ladle 2-3 tbsp of batter for a small pancake. Use low to medium heat. Wait until the edges are brown before flipping. Serve with butter and/or syrup.

TIP!

Jo, Nick, and Venus Talk Movies

Every fortnight, the trio gather to watch a movie together. They take turns on who gets to choose the movie for the night. Every fourth meeting, they collectively decide on one movie to watch. The trio does this activity as it gives them an excuse to hang out with each other and have something to talk to other than what they've already said in the group chat. Why a fortnight, you ask? Well, they thought it was funny. "It's like the video game!" Venus adds.

In this special edition of "On Screen," the trio has picked seven recently watched movies popular enough to discuss and review in no particular order.
